ORANGE COUNTY DRESSAGE ASSOCIATION
HIGH SCORE AWARDS APPLICATION

“SCHOOLING” AWARDS APPLICATION

GUIDELINES:

1. The rider must be an OCDA member.
2. The show season runs from 10/01/07 through 09/30/08.
3. Average of scores will be used to rank the winners: Champion and Reserve, 1st through 6th place.
4. Schooling shows must be OCDA sanctioned. Judges must be USEF/USDF recognized graduates. Schooling shows count toward schooling awards. A separate form must be submitted for each Horse/Rider combination at each level. Copies of all tests must be attached to the application.
5. Individuals are responsible for checking the scoring of their tests.
6. Applicants must submit two (2) scores on one horse, riding under two (2) different USEF/USDF recognized judges or “L” graduates, at two (2) different shows.
7. Judge may NOT be your trainer. No more than ONE show from your home barn.
8. Horse/Rider combinations that have won the championship at a level cannot compete for a high score award again at that level. However, the winner of the schooling championship is eligible to compete for the USEF championship ribbon at the same level.
9. Mail to: Kerry Rose, 330 Goshen Turnpike, Middletown, NY 10941. Applications must be postmarked by 10/01/08. Incomplete applications will not be considered. If you have questions, call Helen @ 845-294-8626.
