

COOL BREEZE FARM_{LLC}
SPORTHORSE TRAINING CENTRE
ORRTANNA, PENNSYLVANIA

For the First time on the East Coast...

A Dressage Instructor's Clinic
"Teaching Classical Dressage"
Module One: Laying the Foundation

A USDF University Accredited program

The First in a series of Dressage instructor clinics with Henrik Johansen & Ulla Boysen

When: July 18 (Saturday) through July 21 (Tuesday), 2009

Where: Cool Breeze Farm, LLC, 731 Orchard Rd., Orrtanna, PA 17353 www.coolbreezefarm.com

Why: The purpose of this clinic is to provide a theoretical base as well as many new ideas for training and teaching dressage. The intent is that by making a united effort, instructors/trainers will be able to command greater respect and by raising professional standards will achieve better results. The objective is that participants will be able to pick out those ideas that they find inspiring and useful, and most importantly, to apply them without changing their personal styles.

Day 1 will be discussion and theory. Day 2-4, participants will ride in lessons and teach lessons.

Henrik Johansen is a Danish licensed Bereiter and an authorized trainer of future riding instructors. Currently he is based in Sweden. Ulla Boysen received her training as instructor in Sweden and is currently based in Washington state. Read more about Henrik and Positive Riding at www.PositiveRiding.com

Modules 2 (covers 1st – 4th level) and 3 (covers FEI levels) will follow approximately 9-12 months apart.

Cost: Participating instructor/trainers (limited to 12 participants) $950 includes handout materials, Participants are Required to Bring A Horse!
Unlimited Auditors $200 for all 4 days includes handout materials (most important day is Day 1)
Auditors $75/day, pre-registered, $85/day at the door
Handouts may be purchased for $25 by pre-ordering
Stabling: $20/night, please bring own hay, grain, buckets and bedding.

Please visit our website (www.coolbreezefarm.com) for more details, entry form, stabling form, and hotel information. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact us.